Dear Sir(s),

Sub: 63 moons to provide next-generation technology solution to pan European digital ecosystem.

Pursuant to applicable regulations of SEBI (Listing Obligations & Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, we are pleased to inform that 63 moons technologies, a global leader in futuristic technovation and user-friendly digital financial platforms with price discovery and transaction efficiencies across industry segments, would back and boost Italy based Spuma SRL, with its next-generation technology capabilities and solutions to create a Digital Market ecosystem for revitalised goods in the pan-Europe multi-million euro(€) project and offering efficient and high value procurement and exchange proficiencies of revitalised goods. This will be one of the biggest production PoC(proof of concept) establishing trust and traceability, at par with smartchain technology.

Spuma SRL will leverage 63moons' expertise on real-time mission critical solutions, using the latest technology suite. 63moons will be offering SaaS(Software as a Service) model with earnings by way of share in revenue by transaction charges & services earned by the digital ecosystem which is the innovative model of 63moons for high-growth IP monetization given similar to Indian exchanges. 63moons will evaluate global giants in cloud computing services like Amazon's AWS, Microsoft's Azure and Google cloud for deploying the technology.

Spuma SRL will be offerings these services initially from Italy, followed by extending to all the European Union countries (by way of proposed capital participation by the respective government agencies) and users of the platform (by their respective business community).

63 moons technologies would be offering exclusive perpetual technology licence & support partner for the production, installation, and maintenance of the software application for the entire project,
