Indian Hotels playing catch-up with Marriott

SAMRIDDHI GUPTA

Tata Group-owned hotel chain Indian Hotels Company Ltd (IHCL) has signed a pact to open at least one hotel a month that will add to its inventory of about 3,000 rooms for the year ahead, pushing into an unprecendented growth phase. Marriott International, on the other hand, has also charted its own aggressive plans for growth.

Last year, Marriott opened 13 hotels in India across multiple brands that include Marriott, Courtyard by Marriott, Radisson and the Ritz-Carlton. It also includes the Four Points, the Le Meridien, and the Sheraton. This year, the multinationals are planning to open about 20 hotels, and the room count of 24,000 rooms is expected to reach around 30,000 by the end of the year, said Marriott officials.

Currently, IHCL is on track to open at least one hotel a month that will add to its inventory of about 3,000 rooms for the year ahead, pushing into an unprecedented growth phase. Marriott International, has also charted its own aggressive plans for growth.
