people were trained and ped to set up shop of different types of agro chemicals and other products for the ease of farmers. In addition, farmers were made to attend ‘krishi melas’ (agri fairs), workshops and seminars to clarify their doubts on agriculture techniques and their usage.

In order to make farmers aware of the little-known properties of the sheep wool, today about a hundred women get wages by doing this work. But it is more challenging to market products made from the sheep wool. Today about a hundred women get wages by doing this work.

From herder to spinner, dyer and weaver so that all of them are able to earn some money," Mangalinya also talked about little-known properties of the
