SAFETY OF WORK AT STATION LEVEL

The Safety of Work At Station Level (SWASL) is a program aimed at enhancing safety standards at railway stations. It involves regular inspections and audits to identify and rectify safety issues. The program focuses on various aspects of station safety, including platform safety, emergency preparedness, and accessibility. Regular training and awareness programs are conducted for railway staff to ensure they are equipped with the necessary knowledge and skills to maintain safety at station level. The SWASL program is an integral part of the overall safety initiatives of the railway, aiming to create a safer environment for passengers and staff alike.
