Funding of such companies increased from around $22 million in FY20 to $5.8 million in FY21 and $17.7 million in FY22, data from Tracxn revealed. The total funding amounted to $0.89 million in 2021 (see chart 3). Despite the slow-down in the number of new companies entering the market, funding continued to grow. In 2017-18, the annual revenue for the market was $8.5 million. This increased to $177 million in 2019 and $224 million in 2021 (see chart 2). Advances in technology have improved user experience with more personalized and detailed assessments. Investors recognize the sector’s potential for macroeconomic headwinds to subside and materialize in the coming months as accessibility to affordable mobile data and growing cultural shifts towards holistic wellbeing.

Pandemic blessing in disguise for firms

Startups are said to have emerged as the big winners amidst the pandemic. Astrotech companies were founded in 2013. In 2021, 23 more online astrology startups were founded. 86 more businesses were founded in 2022 (with the addition of 67 and 30 new companies in 2021 and 2022, respectively). In 2020, the total funding amounted to $0.89 million. In 2021, funding grew to $2.10 million. Despite the slowdown in the number of new companies entering the market, funding continued to grow. In 2017-18, the annual revenue for the market was $8.5 million. This increased to $177 million in 2019 and $224 million in 2021 (see chart 2).
