AAP names 10 candidates for Assembly polls

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 2

NEARLY FIVE months ahead of the Gujarat Assembly elections, the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) announced its first list of candidates for 10 of the 182 constituencies Tuesday.

The list features Bhembhai Chaudhary from the Deodar seat in Banaskantha, Jagmal Vala from Sonmath in Gir Somnath, Arjun Rathva from the Chhota Udepur seat, Sagar Rabari from Bechraji in Mehsana, Vashram Sagathiya from the Rajkot Rural seat, Ram Dhaduk from Kamrej in Surat, Shival Barasia from Rajkot South, Sudhir Vaghani from Gariyadhur in Bhavnagar, Rajendra Solanki from Bardoli in Surat and Omprakash Tiwari from Naroda in Ahmedabad. With this, the AAP has become the first political party to announce candidates for the polls scheduled for December this year as the newcomers are trying to form a third base in a state that has historically seen a two-party contest.

"In the first list, we have fielded leaders from both urban and rural areas, from Other Backward Caste (OBC), Scheduled Caste (SC) and Scheduled Tribe (ST) communities. AAP is a party that is a trendsetter due to its unique style of politics. We have announced the list in advance so that the candidates can reach out to the people of their constituencies and tell them about our vision," said AAP Gujarat president Gopal Italia at a press conference in Ahmedabad Tuesday.

The move comes a day after

AAP national convenor and Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal held a rally in Veraval of Gir Somnath announcing "job guarantee" for all unemployed youths of Gujarat if chosen to power.

"For the first time in the history of Gujarat, a party is announcing its candidates four to five months ahead of the elections. AAP is the honest alternative which the people of Gujarat were looking for all these years. The manner in which the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and the Congress have been ruling Gujarat for the past several decades, the AAP has arrived to fight them with all the strength. Recently, we expanded our party in three stages in order to ensure that we reach every household in Gujarat," Italia added.

Congratulating the candidates, Italia said party Vice-President Chaudhary has been with the party since its inception days in Gujarat and has been striving hard all these years. "Similarly, another Vice-President Jagmal Vala has been selected for the Sonmath seat as he has been working towards the health care of the poor through his medical centre and schools. Our Adivasi community leader Arjun Rathva, a former college professor, who has been fighting for the rights of tribal communities has also been given an opportunity from Chhota Udepur," he said.

Rabari has been chosen for Bechraji as he has been fighting for farmers' rights to save their lands from government projects. "We have also given an opportunity to our youth leader Ram Dhaduk from Surat," Italia said.

Sub-inspector booked for 'accepting' bribe of Rs 1.3 lakh

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 2

THE GUJARAT Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) Tuesday detained a police sub-inspector with Surat Police for allegedly accepting a bribe of Rs 1.3 lakh.

According to Gujarat ACB officials, PSI Jaideepsinh Rajput with Puna police station and his aide Jiauddin Saiyyed were detained after they were allegedly caught red-handed accepting the bribe amount Tuesday.

The ACB officials said that the sub-inspector demanded the bribe amount from a travel firm owner in a prohibition case after a police seized illicit liquor from a luxury bus owned by the firm.

"The accused police officer had called the staff of the travels company and threatened to book him under the prohibition case. The accused police officer then asked for the name of company owner and threatened to book him as well under the prohibition case. The accused then demanded a bribe of Rs 5 lakh for not adding the name of the firm owner in the FIR. Later, the bribe amount was settled to Rs 3 lakh," said a senior official of Gujarat ACB.

"After the travels company staff spoke to his owner, the latter paid the inspector Rs 1,70,000 which was then handed over to the accused police officer through Jiauddin Saiyyed on August 1. The accused officer then demanded the remaining Rs 1,30,000. It was then that the travels company staff approached the ACB and a trap was set," the official added.

Bajrang Dal threat, school calls off kindergarten field trip to mosque in Vadodara

ADITIRAJA
VADODARA, AUGUST 2

A PRIVATE school, which had planned a field trip for kindergarten children to a mosque in Vadodara, called off the visit after protests from Bajrang Dal Tuesday. Volunteers of the Bajrang Dal, who claimed to have "received complaints" from parents, arrived at the school and threatened the management with dire consequences if children were taken to the mosque.

Kalali-based Delhi Public School, which had earlier taken children for a temple visit in the city, had planned to take the kindergarten children to a mosque as part of a field visit for value education this week. However, volunteers of the Bajrang Dal arrived on campus Tuesday and staged a protest, chanting the Ram Dhun.

Later, they met the Principal and "warned" of agitation if the mosque visit was not called off. "We have asked the Principal to call off this field trip to the mosque... There is no need to mix religion with education. They can show many places of worship using virtual technology. We have left it to the Principal saying he should consider he would not want his school to earn a bad name in the name of religion... We have come here after receiving complaints from the parents. We will also return on the designated day when the mosque trip is scheduled. If we see that they have not complied, we are prepared for an agitation," said Ketan Trivedi, Bajrang Dal President in Vadodara.

When contacted, Principal AK Sinha told this newspaper that he had met volunteers of the protesting group and students' safety was the school's top priority. "As of now, all field trips organised by the school in August stand cancelled," Sinha said.

Last week, the school had issued a consent form to parents seeking voluntary permission for the children's mosque visit. The school said that all parents who wished to send their wards on the field trip had returned the form in agreement. The management added that it did not receive complaints or objections from any parent as it was the latter's choice to send the children for the visit or
