Govt to review FY21 disinvestment plan

Officials admit that the Department of Investment & Public Asset Management (DIPAM) could also look at the same attractions by providing a compelling investor appeal. The department is of the opinion that there is quite a bit of appeal in the current climate.

While the Centre has been quite willing to provide a compelling investor appeal, it is also in the process of reviewing the FY21 disinvestment plan. DIPAM has identified various start-ups, MNCs, foreign institutional investors (FIIs), and micro, small, and large companies to invest in various sectors in the country. It has also identified various sectors in which it feels there is potential for investment. It has also identified various sectors in which it feels there is potential for investment.
