The board of Coromandel Ltd, on Friday rejected allegations that promoters of SP Group had made a 'misrepresentation' to the Supreme Court on April 1.

The SP Group on September 11 had approached the Supreme Court against the resolution passed by the Tata Sons in blocking the third-party takeover. The SC had, however, declined to hear the case.

The SP Group had alleged that Tata Sons put pressure on its board to sell the company to the SP Group for a consideration of Rs 15,500 crore.

However, the Tata Sons had rejected the allegations and on September 11 the SC had consented to hear the case.

The SC has also permitted the Tata Sons to file an affidavit by September 14 on the alleged misrepresentation.

The SC had also said on April 1 that the board of Coromandel Ltd was free to sell the company to SP Group.

The board of Coromandel Ltd, in a reply filed on September 11, has clarified that it had rejected the allegations.

The board has also mentioned in its reply that the SC had asked for an affidavit from the Tata Sons by September 14 on the alleged misrepresentation.

Coromandel Ltd had filed an application on September 11 to file an affidavit on the alleged misrepresentation.

The SC has also allowed Coromandel Ltd to file its affidavit by September 14.

The SC had also said that the Tata Sons could file an affidavit on the alleged misrepresentation by September 14.

The SC had also asked the Tata Sons to file an affidavit on the alleged misrepresentation by September 14.
