Focus Edumatics to recruit over 2000 candidates nationwide

Coimbatore, Sept 8:
Focus Edumatics announced that it will be hiring 2000 plus graduates and postgraduates as online tutors by the end of December 2020. The certified applicants will be onboarded as online tutors to teach Math, Science and English to the US based K12 students during the USA school day shift.

Moreover, it would provide one-month free online training to all the candidates who will be selected for the Online-tutor position and they will also get certified by Focus Edumatics as an Online-tutor. They will be hired as full-time employees with all statutory benefits.

Speaking on the ramp up of hiring, U.K. Rana, President, Focus Edumatics said, “We are fortunate to be in a position to create so many rewarding jobs and career opportunities, especially in this current environment. The pandemic has brought hard-times for many people. We understand this very well and thus have planned to hire over 2,000 tutors. Also, Considering the huge spurt recently in the Online-education in the Indian Market due to the COVID-crisis, we also plan to shortly introduce a Customised Online-tutoring platform for the Indian Schools and Colleges as well.”

Tutors have always been attracted to Focus' teaching philosophy, and work from home model. These have become even greater selling points over the last few months as teachers look for ways to stay connected to students and their love of teaching. For most companies, adding 300 new employees while working remotely would be a challenge. Focus' training and evaluation program is designed to be entirely virtual.
