The Congress on Saturday urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to take the nation into confidence, to talk with China on the border row in Ladakh, sitting people want the outcomes of the current negotiations with the Chinese side. The Opposition’s demand comes a day after Defence Minister Rajnath Singh and his Chinese counterpart met for the first time in Moscow. The long meeting in Moscow was a focus on the escalating border standoff between Indian and Chinese forces in Ladakh. Congress leader Rahul Gandhi said at a meeting with the Prime Minister and Defence Minister, Rajnath Singh, that the talks were held to take the nation into confidence.

In a reference to the situation at the India-China border, his statement makes it clear that the talks were held to take the nation into confidence:

“On the border, you are talking with China, say there are discussions, tell us that discussions are going well... tell us that we’re holding discussions with China, tell us that you’ve held discussions with China... tell us that you’re holding discussions with China.”

The full statement is as follows:

“On the border, you are talking with China, say there are discussions, tell us that discussions are going well... tell us that we’re holding discussions with China, tell us that you’ve held discussions with China... tell us that you’re holding discussions with China. You should tell us that the discussions are going well, what happened, who is doing what, and what our position will be... you should tell the nation. So, you should tell us that there are discussions with China... tell us what you’re doing.”

Rajnath Singh’s statement comes amid a diplomatic row over the deployment of Chinese troops at the border. India has repeatedly accused China of sending its troops to the border, which has led to a tense standoff between the two countries. The US has also criticized China for its actions, calling it a violation of international law.

The border row has been ongoing since June 2020, when Chinese troops entered Indian territory. The situation escalated after India accused China of sending its troops to the border, which has led to a tense standoff between the two countries. The US has also criticized China for its actions, calling it a violation of international law.
